

CARIE LAUREN COX VAUGHN

Anyone who knows Carie will tell you they remember her for her passion and excitement for life and her love of people. She has a unique ability to empathize and feel what others are dealing with. This one trait alone gives her an ability as a performer and writer to give an audience a creation that feels as if it was created just for them. Her southern charm is evident in her music which feels as simple and warm and close to home as a Christmas fireplace and as sophisticated as the cajun food from where she came. Carie is trained in classical and commercial performance Soprano as well as a Mezzo Belter and has a three and a half octave range giving her versatility in performing many different roles. She loves performing many genres of music including musical theater, jazz, pop and country. Her singer/songwriting style is what she refers to as Ragin' Cajun. Combining her ethereal warm angelic voice with world beats spiced up with Jazz or Dixieland flavor. Her latest single has been said to have as much a Reage feel as it does a French cafe in New Orleans.

Carie loves working with people young people at schools and in her speaking and coaching business. It is a passion of hers to use her music to help people overcome difficulties and use their passion to fuel their success. As a singer motivational speaker and author, Carie looks for opportunities to share her passion and experience through comedy, tears and song.

Carie is currently pursuing a Bachelor's degree in commercial music and vocal performance and specializes in teaching her vocal students healthy singing as well as the different placements for various genres. She is currently singing Belle from Beauty and the Beast, Fiona From Shrek the Musical for UVU outreach group for schools with Dr. Tyler Nelson and is also involved in Concert Performance with Opera stage Director Dr. Mark Reynolds where she will be singing these roles as well as Lucy from Jekyll and Hyde. Carie's versatility can be heard in this year's concert which include these roles as well as her own original pieces and favorites from other artists from different genres. Carie is currently recording an original album which is full of warm, melty chocolate and is scheduled for release at the end of the summer.

To keep up with Carie and hear her past work visit her at www.CarieLauren.com or on Reverbnation.